About story

Overall Plot

"The Exciting Adventure Story of Our Tropical Fish Friends in the Aquarium at Home"

The "Aquantte" Animation Project focuses on the importance of oxygen and the dignity of life as its central theme. Through the story set in the mysterious underwater world of Aquante, it aims to convey a profound message about the essence of life and the cycle of nature.

As the main character, Castel, and his friends fight against the Ether tribe to protect the oxygen bubble "Oxyball," centered around the human child "Baba," young viewers are reminded of the preciousness of nature and the value of life.

This project raises awareness about the importance of nature and environmental protection, posing meaningful questions about the values we must protect within the interconnected web of life.

CASTEL "Let's protect Aquantte together!"

Castel is a fish with a small appearance but possesses a strong sense of adventure and willpower. He doesn't express his emotions well and wants to hide his weaknesses, yet he feels proud of his mission to safely transport the oxygen bubble "Oxyball" and fights against the Ether Tribe. He becomes friends with the mischievous Baba, but when he learns that Baba is synchronized with the Ether Tribe, he feels betrayed. Later, he comes to understand Baba, overcomes his shortcomings, and learns true courage and friendship.

MADLEN "Why is everyone acting like this? We should trust and help each other!"

Madeleine is an emotional and shy fish, but she possesses a strong inner strength that becomes more resolute in difficult times. She desires to be loved by everyone for her ability to understand and care for her friends, and she helps Castel transport the oxygen bubbles. Even though she is the first to notice that Baba is synchronized with the Ether Tribe, she understands and supports him. Throughout the story, she grows into a leader and learns the importance of Aquante and her responsibilities.

MONGBLANG "Don't bully me and my friends!"

Montblanc appears scary, but in reality, he is gentle, lazy, and loves to eat. With a strong sense of justice, he protects his friends from danger, and when he gets angry, his body puffs up to thwart the Ether Tribe's schemes. He takes pride in his role of safely transporting the "Oxyball" and often teases Baba, who is his favorite target for playful jabs. Throughout the story, he learns to take responsibility for his strength and uses that power to protect Aquante.

SCON "Leave all the information about Aquante to me!"

Scone is a triangular fish with a bright green tone and is always tense and anxious, making him a coward. He speaks quickly, often hiccups, and constantly follows and relies on the larger fish, Montblanc. He is very skilled at swiftly navigating the aquarium to gather rumors and information. He enjoys collecting and recording the oxygen bubbles, known as "Oxyball." While he is suspicious of the mischievous Baba and remains on guard, he ultimately learns the true meaning of friendship by saving his friends with Baba's help.

BARBA "Look at me! Play with me!"

Baba is a curious and impulsive 5-year-old troublemaker who views the Aquante Aquarium as a magical world and wants to touch and play with everything. However, he has a tendency to get bored quickly and easily gives up on his obsession with catching Aqua Fish in Aquante. After becoming synchronized with the Ether Tribe, he experiences a new world and accidentally helps his Aqua Fish friends, ultimately realizing the importance of oxygen. Baba's main goal is simply to have fun with anyone and anything, and in the process, his actions become a nuisance for the Ether Tribe.

ATLAN "Aquante is mine now!"

Atlan is the ruthless leader of the deep-sea Ether Tribe. Through a synchronization link, he exchanges telepathy and contaminates the oxygen bubbles with toxic spore powder. He schemes to dominate Aquante by disrupting the "Oxyball," but his plans always fall apart due to accidents. After synchronizing with Baba, he attempts to use Baba to control Aquante; however, when Baba becomes friends with the Aqua Fish, his plan fails, prompting Atlán to devise even more malicious schemes.

PACHE "Aquantte is mine!"

Pachi is the second-in-command of the Ether Tribe, filled with betrayal and greed. She assists Atlan in trying to dominate Aquante but secretly schemes to become the true master herself. Her plans consistently fail due to Baba, and each time, she secretly weeps. Afraid of revealing her true feelings, Pachi dreams of ruling Aquante but ultimately opens a portal of adventure for Baba and the Aqua Fish.

인디오 / INDIO "Who am I and where did I come from?"

Indio is a striking Ether Tribe fish with vibrant red feather scales, but he is often ignored by his peers due to the spore powder he emits. Despite his fierce and intimidating appearance, he has a poor grasp of situations and a foolish obsession with eating. He tries to assist his companions in dominating Aquante but often ends up playing with Baba instead. Even when facing Montblanc, he pretends to be strong but frequently runs away. Ultimately, he begins a journey of transformation to find his true self, recalling his past life.

"The Exciting Adventure Story of Our Tropical Fish Friends in the Aquarium at Home"

Episode 1: "The Secret of Aquante"

Baba discovers that the aquarium, Aquante, in his home is not just a simple house for fish. Curious Baba explores the mysteries of Aquante and becomes friends with its guardian, Castel. However, Aquante is under threat. The deep-sea Ether Tribe, particularly their leader, Atlan, is scheming to seize the oxygen bubbles, known as "Oxyball," in an attempt to take control of Aquante. Baba accidentally uncovers part of this plot and embarks on an adventure to protect the secret of Aquante.

Episode 2: "Baba's Synchronization"

Baba begins to connect more deeply with the world of Aquante. The leader of the Ether Tribe, Atlan, plans to use Baba to dominate Aquante and attempts to synchronize with him using his telepathic abilities. As a result, Baba becomes connected to the Ether Tribe, but he also feels a special bond with the beings of Aquante. Through this synchronization, Baba starts to understand Atlan's plot, but he realizes that he and his friends must take on significant risks to protect Aquante. In the process, Baba discovers his inner self and strengthens his resolve to safeguard the fate of Aquante.

Episode 3: "Baba's Fish Life"

Through his synchronization with the Ether Tribe, Baba fully assimilates with the fish of Aquante and experiences life as a fish. At first, he finds it fascinating and fun, enjoying time with his fish friends. However, he soon realizes that living as a fish is not easy at all. Baba encounters the challenges and adventures of fish life, such as hunting for food, evading predators, and cooperating with his friends.

In this process, Baba gains a deeper understanding of his fish friends' struggles and the importance of the oxygen bubble, "Oxyball." He also becomes aware of how real the threat of the Ether Tribe is and what role he must play to protect Aquante. Through his experiences as a fish, Baba learns the true meaning of responsibility and courage, and his bonds with his fish friends grow stronger.

"The Exciting Adventure Story of Our Tropical Fish Friends in the Aquarium at Home"

Episode 4: "Castel and Friends"

This episode focuses on the deepening bonds between Castel and his friends in the world of Aquante. Castel is on an important mission to safely transport the oxygen bubble, "Oxyball," and his friends Madeleine, Montblanc, and Baba are there to help him. Each character contributes to the team with their unique abilities and personalities, leading to a better understanding of one another.

Especially while facing the Ether Tribe's schemes and challenges, they come to realize the importance of teamwork even more. This episode centers on Castel and his friends learning the true meaning of friendship as they trust each other.

Episode 5: "Let's Make Oxygen Bubbles"

As the oxygen bubbles, "Oxyball," essential for sustaining life in Aquante, become increasingly scarce, a sense of crisis rises. Baba and his friends collaborate to create new oxygen bubbles and begin to learn about the crucial process of oxygen production. The combination of Montblanc's powerful strength, Castel's wisdom, and Madeleine's delicacy helps them navigate through the challenging situation.

In this process, the friends build deeper bonds and come to understand the importance of teamwork. This episode centers on Baba and his friends learning the value of cooperation and effort in solving problems.

Episode 6: "The Emergence of the Ether Tribe"

The Ether Tribe makes its first appearance in the world of Aquante, marking the beginning of a significant threat. The leader of the Ether Tribe, Atlan, along with his companions Pachi and Indio, plots to dominate Aquante and starts contaminating its oxygen bubbles. They threaten the peace of Aquante through their synchronization links, presenting powerful challenges to Baba and his friends.

This episode unfolds around the tension caused by the Ether Tribe's emergence and the sense of crisis they bring.
